Week Fifteen / Chapter Eight – Deviance and Social Control

Instructions for the Week of November 29 to December 3

Welcome back from your Thanksgiving break. Deviance! Social control! Oh my! Well, to be fair, there has to be some control over how we behave in society. But where, how, and why do we draw lines. Let's ask this question in Chapter 8. Here's your workload for the week:

Task 1: Click "PowerPoint Notes for Deviance and Social Control" and go over slides 1 – 17. After going through this part of the presentation, I would like everyone to write two questions and make two comments about the presentation. You will upload this information to our Google Classroom page.

Task 2: Click "Text Reading and Text Assignment # 15" to find out what to read that week and the accompanying text assignment. This text assignment will be uploaded to the Google Classroom page.

Task 3: Click "Crash Course # 18: Deviance." These short, 8 to 12-minute videos are a great way to familiarize yourself with some of the concepts we use in sociology. Enjoy another round of trying to keep up with Nicole!

Task 4: Each lecture will be accompanied by an article which will correspond to that lecture's theme. This week you'll be looking at an article titled "Sociological Explanations of Deviant Behavior."

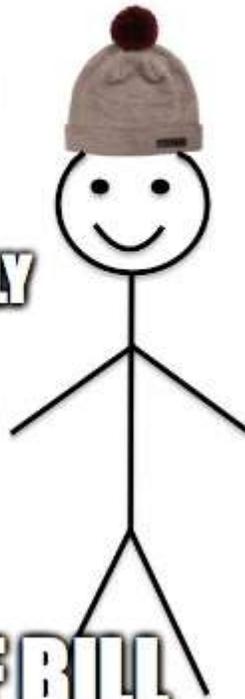

Task 5: Click "Video: Human Resources: Social Engineering in the 20th Century" and watch the first hour. This is some pretty deep stuff, so focus as best you can and try hard to figure out what it is the film is suggesting. After watching the film, you will go to our Google Classroom page and upload to the Discussion Board Response. On this page I would like you to write a short, one-paragraph comment about the film. After that, please respond to two other student's responses. Please keep your responses to other students respectful – we don't need to agree, but let's be polite and mature in how we talk to each other...

OK folks, we're super close to our winter break. Stay focused and let's finish up strong. Let me know if you need any help with anything...
