Week Sixteen / Chapter Eight – Deviance and Social Control (continued)

Instructions for the Week of December 6 to 10

People! We are D-U-N done! Yeah, that's right. This is it because I want to save next week for finishing up any final work you need to do. Congrats folks on an excellent semester under very tough conditions. Very proud of each and every one of you. After we knock out finals week I hope everyone will enjoy a well-deserved two-week break. Here's your (final!) workload for the week:

Task 1: Click "PowerPoint Notes for Deviance and Social Control" and go over slides 18 – 32. After going through this part of the presentation, I would like everyone to write two questions and make two comments about the presentation. You will upload this information to our Google Classroom page.

Task 2: Click "Text Reading and Text Assignment # 16" to find out what to read that week and the accompanying text assignment. This text assignment will be uploaded to the Google Classroom page.

Task 3: Click "Crash Course # 19: Theory and Deviance." These short, 8 to 12-minute videos are a great way to familiarize yourself with some of the concepts we use in sociology. More Nicole next semester....yay!

Task 4: Each lecture will be accompanied by an article which will correspond to that lecture's theme. This week you have a "read only" article titled "Deviance and Social Control." Check it out...comments welcomed!

Task 5: Click "Video: Human Resources: Social Engineering in the 20th Century" and watch the second hour. Hope you were able to hang with this one. After watching the film, you will go to our Google Classroom page and upload to the Discussion Board Response. On this page I would like you to write a short, one-paragraph comment about the film. After that, please respond to two other student's responses. Please keep your responses to other students respectful – we don't need to agree, but let's be polite and mature in how we talk to each other...

So next week – finishing touches – no final (thank me later) – and then I'll meet up with you guys in January for semester two.

Kropf
