

US Government / AP Final Thesis Project – Spring 2018

The Four Theories of American Government

Final Due Date: Friday, June 1, 2018 (this is a “drop dead” date. No papers accepted after this date).

Question: Explain the four competing theories of American government. By examining various historical and contemporary aspects of our government (i.e. the question of whether there is widespread education sufficient to ensure a strong democracy and the question of whether American global power is expanding or in decline), create an overall thesis suggesting which of the four appears to be the more descriptive with regard to the “necessary and ordinary operations of American government.”

I. Title Page (page number 1)

II. Abstract Page (page number 2)

III. Main Body (beginning with page number 3)

a. Introduction / Thesis Statement – a brief description of the four theories followed by a brief statement of your thesis outlining the details of how you will explore this overall question (2 to 3 pages in length).

b. Widespread education: Is it sufficient to support a democracy? Does the education expand the notion of citizenship? (first research project – approximately 10 pages of text analysis).

c. The future of American power. Is American power and influence expanding or contracting? (second research project – approximately 10 pages of text analysis).

d. Conclusion – a wrap-up of your thesis and the conclusions that you have come to based on the evidence you have uncovered (2 to 3 pages in length).

IV. Reference Pages – please complete in APA style (continue page numbering through last reference page).
