

US Government / AP Final Thesis Project – Fall 2019

The Four Theories of American Government

Final Due Date: Friday, December 13, 2019 (this is a “drop dead” date. No papers accepted after this date).

Question: Explain the four competing theories of American government. By examining various historical and contemporary aspects of our government (i.e. the question of whether the middle class is robust enough to support democracy; and whether the government’s immigration policies serve the public or other forces in society), create an overall thesis suggesting which of the four appears to be the more descriptive with regard to the “necessary and ordinary operations of American government.”

I. Title Page (page number 1)

II. Abstract Page (page number 2)

III. Main Body (beginning with page number 3)

a. Introduction / Thesis Statement – a brief description of the four theories followed by a brief statement of your thesis outlining the details of how you will explore this overall question (2 to 3 pages in length).

b. Democracy and the Middle Class. If democracy requires a vibrant middle class, how is the US doing? How has inequality affected the middle class? (first research project – approximately 10 pages of text analysis).

c. Who benefits and who pays the cost of our immigration policies? Are these policies designed to serve the all the people of this country? (second research project – approximately 10 pages of text analysis).

e. Conclusion – a wrap-up of your thesis and the conclusions that you have come to based on the evidence you have uncovered (2 to 3 pages in length).

IV. Reference Pages – please complete in APA style (continue page numbering through last reference page).
