Week Ten / Chapter Five – Socializing the Individual (continued)

Instructions for the Week of October 19 to 23

Hey People,

So we can finish up this week with the process of socialization and get ourselves ready to look in the mirror as we study YOU (the adolescent) in society. Does Gen Z get a bad rap? How do you compare to Millennials? The “OK Boomer” will guide you effortlessly through the two-week examination of ourselves. Should be fun, but don’t count on it...OK, here you go:

Task 1: Click “PowerPoint Notes for Socialization” and view slides 12 – 23. After going through this presentation, I would like everyone to write two questions and make two comments about the presentation. You will upload this information to our Google Classroom page.

Task 2: Click “Text Reading and Text Assignment # 10” to find out what to read that week and the accompanying text assignment. This text assignment will be uploaded to the Google Classroom page.

Task 3: Click “Why We Should Talk to Strangers.” These short, 8 to 12-minute videos are a great way to familiarize yourself with some of the concepts we use in sociology. No Nicole! This time it’s Malcolm Gladwell. Wish I had his hair.....

Task 4: Each lecture will be accompanied by an article which will correspond to that lecture’s theme. This week has a "read-only" article. You do not need to do a journal response.

Task 5: Click “Video: The Facebook Dilemma” and watch Part 2 of the documentary on the Youtube link. The videos are approximately one to two hours for each lecture. They can be watched at your convenience but do try to absorb the entire film. After watching the film, you will go to our Google Classroom page and upload to the Discussion Board Response. On this page I would like you to write a short, one-paragraph comment about the film. After that, please respond to two other student’s responses. Please keep your responses to other students respectful – we don’t need to agree, but let’s be polite and mature in how we talk to each other...

Well, that’s it for now. Stay busy, keep up, but no stress!

Later gators,
Kropf
