Week Fourteen / Chapter Seven – The Adult in Society (continued)

Instructions for the Week of November 16 to 20

So we'll finish up our discussion of the adult in society this week. Hats off to everyone, this is a challenging chapter, but you handled it with lots of intelligence and aplomb. Here's your workload for the week:

Task 1: Click "PowerPoint Notes for The Adult in Society" and cycle through slides 20 – 34. After going through this part of the presentation, I would like everyone to write two questions and make two comments about the presentation. You will upload this information to our Google Classroom page.

Task 2: Click "Text Reading and Text Assignment # 14" to find out what to read that week and the accompanying text assignment. This text assignment will be uploaded to the Google Classroom page.

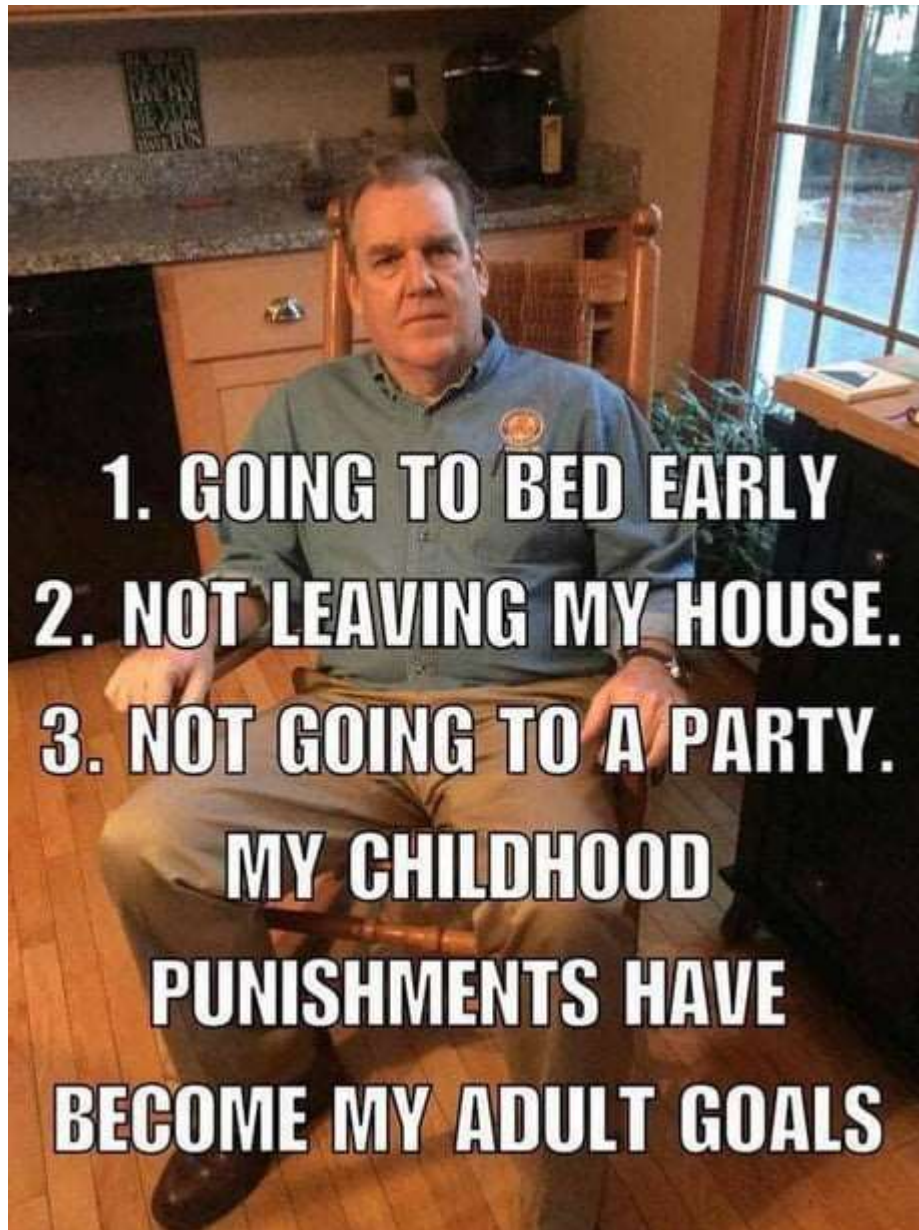

Task 3: Click "Crash Course # 25: The Impacts of Social Class." These short, 8 to 12-minute videos are a great way to familiarize yourself with some of the concepts we use in sociology. We'll be looking deeper into this in the second semester, but for now let's see how social class mixes with adulthood.

Task 4: Each lecture will be accompanied by an article which will correspond to that lecture's theme. This week you'll be looking at a website titled "Periods of Human Development." No journal response this week so just check out the different stages we go through in life.

Task 5: Click "Video: The Bridge" and watch the last 45 minutes. I should say that I'm super proud of everyone for handling this material in such a mature fashion. After watching the film, you will go to our Google Classroom page and upload to the Discussion Board Response. On this page I would like you to write a short, one-paragraph comment about the film. After that, please respond to two other student's responses. Please keep your responses to other students respectful – we don't need to agree, but let's be polite and mature in how we talk to each other...

Well, we have one more chapter to go and then the semester is over! Next week we'll look at deviance and social control for a couple weeks and then....a break! Whew! Almost done, stay tough people...
