Week Seventeen / Chapter 17 – Collective Behavior and Social Movements

Instructions for the Week of May 3 to 7

So here we are. At our final month. What a ride, huh people? A full year of online learning. We'll have to have a chat about this as we finish up this month. Two more chapters, looking at collective behavior, social movements, social change, and modernization and we are D-U-N. Should be a piece of cake. Let me know how things are going if you're feeling overwhelmed. Otherwise, just keep at it with this week's tasks. Here you are:

Task 1: Click "PowerPoint Notes for Collective Behavior and Social Change" and go over slides 1 – 20. After going through this part of the presentation, I would like everyone to write two questions and make two comments about the presentation. You will upload this information to our Google Classroom page.

Task 2: Click "Text Reading and Text Assignment # 17" to find out what to read that week and the accompanying text assignment. This text assignment will be uploaded to the Google Classroom page.

Task 3: Click "Crash Course # 12: How We Got Here: Society and Societal Change." These short, 8 to 12-minute videos are a great way to familiarize yourself with some of the concepts we use in sociology. You'll miss Nicole...SAY IT!

Task 4: Each lecture will be accompanied by an article which will correspond to that lecture's theme. This week will require you to upload a "journal response" to the article. Remember, one full page for the full 10 out of 10 points credit and make sure to analyze, not summarize (don't tell me what the article is about (summarizing), tell me what you think about it (analysis).

Task 5: Click "Video: This Changes Everything" and watch the first hour. After watching the film, you will go to our Google Classroom page and upload to the Discussion Board Response. On this page I would like you to write a short, one to two-paragraph comment about the film. After that, please respond to two other student's responses. Please keep your responses to other students respectful – we don't need to agree, but let's be polite and mature in how we talk to each other...

Last month! Stay focused people...don't start walking....run, run, run!!
