

Instructions for the February 8, 2022 Lecture

Hello Everybody!

So, we're starting week three. Things are going to speed up for the next couple weeks and then settle back down again as we move into March. Stay tough through this...if you find yourself working on the weekends on some of this stuff, that's totally normal. Remember we're cramming a lot of information in, so it will seem a little overwhelming at times. Make sure you're taking lots of breaks, stretching, maybe some push ups / sit ups (only if you're healthy), and getting lots of rest. Here's what this week will look like:

Lecture 3. The Constitution

Task 1: Read these instructions (got it!).

Task 2: Read Chapter 2 in the Heineman text (pp. 19-45)

Task 3: Watch the lecture presentation on "The Constitution." Yup...me again... sorry.

Task 4: Read the article for your journal response. You can find the question on the link titled "Lecture / Discussion Page" highlighted in yellow. After completing the response, you will have until the date posted on the assignments page to upload it to Canvas.

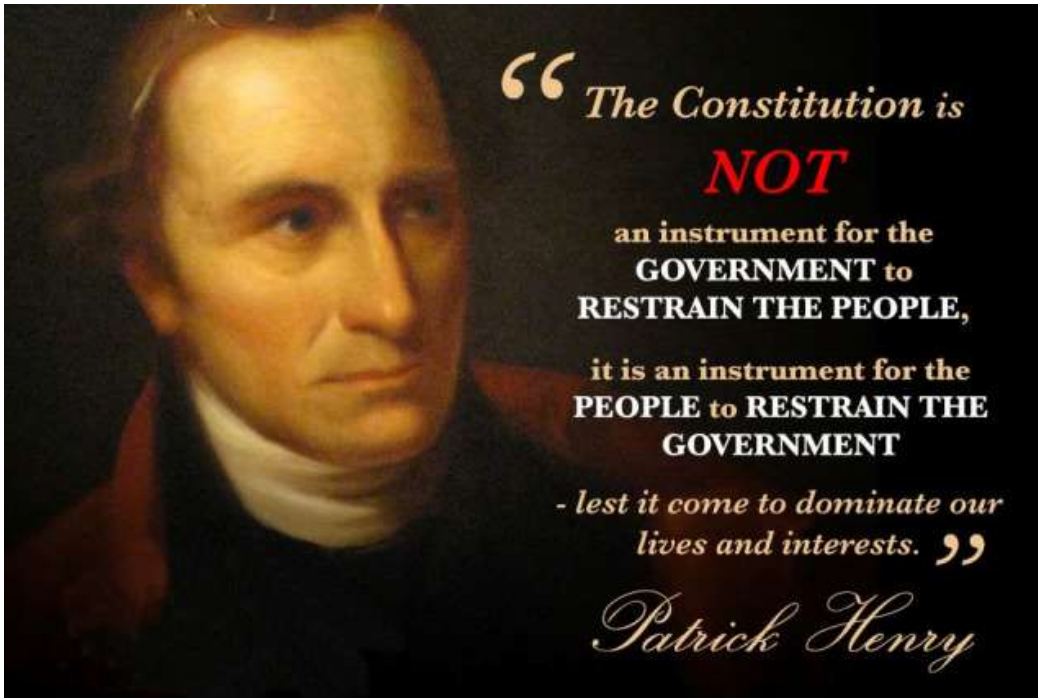

Task 5: Open the link for the video and watch.

Task 6: Go to our Canvas page and click the link titled "Discussion Board for Lecture Three" and answer the question that I have posted in approximately one to two-paragraphs. Wait for other students to put their responses and then pick two students to respond to. The deadline for these responses will be posted on the Canvas assignments page. Don't be late....

OK, so we're looking good. See you next week on the 15th and we'll examine the concept of federalism...let me know in our Zoom meetups or email if you have any questions.

No justice, no peace people,

“ The Constitution is
NOT

an instrument for the GOVERNMENT to RESTRAIN THE PEOPLE,

it is an instrument for the
PEOPLE to RESTRAIN THE GOVERNMENT

- lest it come to dominate our lives and interests. ”

Patrick Henry

In the end the Obama administration is not afraid of whistleblowers like me, Bradley Manning or Thomas Drake. We are stateless, imprisoned, or powerless. No, the Obama administration is afraid of you. It is afraid of an informed, angry public demanding the constitutional government it was promised — and it should be.
