

Instructions for Lecture Ten

Yo Comparativists!

We are finishing up Political Systems and How They Work this week and will take a look at another world region next week with analysis of Asia and Eurasia. Our last lecture for this section will be a glance at the concept of “regime change.” Why do some new democracies revert to authoritarianism while others manage to survive? Can democracy survive in any country, or does it require a certain type of society, culture, or economy? Again, we’ll compare our system with others to decide whether this term is applicable to us!

Lecture 10. Regime Change

Task 1: Read these instructions! ().

Task 2: Read Chapter 9 in the Orvis/Drogus text (pp. 278 – 310)

Task 3: Watch the lecture presentation on “Regime Change.”

Task 4: Read the article for your journal response. You can find the question on the link titled “Lecture / Discussion Page” highlighted in yellow. After completing the response, you will have until the date posted on the assignments page to upload it to Canvas.

Task 5: Open the link for the video and watch.

Task 6: Go to our Canvas page and click the link titled “Discussion Board for Lecture One” and answer the question that I have posted in approximately one to two-paragraphs. Wait for other students to put their responses and then pick two students to respond to. The deadline for these responses will be posted on the Canvas assignments page. Don’t be late....

Next week, we’ll take another little “detour” from the Orvis text and go back to Weatherby and examine Asia and Eurasia in our other world region discussions. Time’s getting tight on the research paper. Start ramping it up....

Peace, love, and Bobby Sherman
