

Instructions for Lecture Eleven

We're back!

Finishing up Part 2 of the course with a tour of Asia and Eurasia as part of our "Other World Regions" component. This lecture I think dovetails pretty nicely with your research project. Mostly because many scholars and researchers believe that the 21st century will be known as the "Asian Century" displacing the United States and its Western allies from the dominant hegemonic position it has held for the last 200 or so years. Are they correct? There's a lot riding on this question, it's not just academic. You might be the generation that witnesses the change!

Lecture 11. Other World Regions: Asia and Eurasia

Task 1: Read these instructions! (zzzzzzzzzz....).

Task 2: Read Chapter 7 in the Weatherby text (pp. 254 – 308)

Task 3: Watch the lecture presentation on "Other World Regions: Asia and Eurasia."

Task 4: Read the article for your journal response. You can find the question on the link titled "Lecture / Discussion Page" highlighted in yellow. After completing the response, you will have until the date posted on the assignments page to upload it to Canvas.

Task 5: Open the link for the video and watch.

Task 6: Go to our Canvas page and click the link titled "Discussion Board for Lecture One" and answer the question that I have posted in approximately one to two-paragraphs. Wait for other students to put their responses and then pick two students to respond to. The deadline for these responses will be posted on the Canvas assignments page. Don't be late....

The paper's due in 2 weeks! Time to get crackin'! Next week we'll move into Part 3: "Political Economy and Policy." Lots going on in this area so time to put the seatbelts on....

People get ready,
